

مقاصد الشريعة

أصولها ومحتوياتها وحقيقتها

برنامج تربوي مع

فضيلة الشيخ العلامة عبد الله بن يوسف الجديع

MAQĀSID AL-SHARĪ'A

ORIGINS, CONTEXT & REALITIES

A three-day intensive course on Maqāsid al-Sharī'a (objectives of Shari'a), where participants would be introduced to the higher intents and objectives of Shari'a as well as attempt a methodical study of the various categories and the means to realize the objectives of Shari'a. The course will highlight the differing academic and scholastic viewpoints to equip and provide participants with in-depth knowledge needed for realising the motivations for the enacting of Islamic regulations.

Fri 14th – Sun 16th July 2006

The East London Mosque, Lower Hall, Whitechapel Road, London E1 1JQ

(Fri 14th 6pm-8pm / Sat 15th - Sun 16th 10am-7pm)

Registration and course fees apply - see overleaf for details

Shaykh Abdullah Ibn Yusuf Al-Judai'

A leading scholar of our time and key a reference-point for the 'ulama in the West and beyond.
(See overleaf for full profile)

organised by sponsored by

مؤسسة قرطبة
The Cordoba Foundation

www.thecordobafoundation.com

DESIGN BY: MOONLIGHT STUDIOS & ASKHAAN

Who should attend this course?

Anyone interested in furthering their understanding of Islamic Law and related matters.
Leaders and mentors involved in Islamic work and da'wa.
Imams and teachers involved in the teaching of Islam.
Students of knowledge.

Teaching medium

The course will be delivered in the Arabic Language to encourage participants to further their knowledge and practice of Arabic and also to motivate others to study Arabic.
The course will be rendered into English by an experienced interpreter.

Course Fees*

Bookings before 30th June 2006

£25 – Students & unemployed
£35 – Standard (Employed)

Bookings after 30th June 2006

£35 – Students & unemployed
£45 – Standard (Employed)

*Fees non-refundable

*Lunch, refreshment and course materials included
Please enquire for creche availability

LIMITED PLACES

Profile of Shaykh Abdullah Al-Judai'

Shaykh Al-'Allama Abdullah ibn Yusuf Al-Judai' is one of the leading scholars of our time and a key reference-point for the 'Ulama in the West. Born in al-Basra, Iraq, Shaykh Abdullah combines traditional method of studying with mashayikh (scholars) of Iraq in the fields of Usul al-Fiqh, 'Ulum al-Hadith, 'Ulum al-Quran and many other fields of Islam, with a long and intensive interaction with modern-day contexts both in the East as well as the West, which allowed him to excel in implementing his knowledge and the principles of Fiqh. He has committed to memory the entire Qur'an and numerous classical Islamic mutun (texts). He published his first book at the age of 18, and he has been commended by the leaders of Islamic Fiqh and Hadith around the world including Shaykh Yusuf Al-Qaradawi and the late Shaykh Nasir Al-Din Al-Albani. Shaykh Abdullah Al-Judai' has authored and done tahqiq (verification) very widely on a plethora of topics, numbering to nearly a hundred books.

A founding member of the European Council for Fatwa and Research where he served as its General Secretary from 1998-2000, his other roles – among many -- included being an Imam & Khateeb of Al-Nijada Masjid in al-Basra (1976-1978); head Imam & Khateeb of Al-'Uqaila & 'Amr Ibn 'As Masjid in Kuwait (1979-1986); and a senior Islamic Studies teacher in Dar al-Qur'an in Kuwait (1986-1988).

Combining a broad Islamic Sciences knowledge with a vast knowledge and awareness of modern day tools and information technology, he served as a research consultant for Al-Sakhr Technologies in Kuwait and Saudi Arabia, which introduced the very first Arabic PC, and he edited most of the initial software programs on Hadith and other sciences.

Shaykh Al-Judai' is currently the head of Al-Judai' Centre for Research and Counselling; a religious consultant for Leeds Grand Mosque and a teacher of Usul al-Fiqh at the European Institute of Human Sciences, Wales.

Registration

Post:

IFE Lote Tree Tarbiya, LMC Business Wing,
3rd Floor, 38-44 Whitechapel Rd, London E1 1JX

Cheque payments to: Islamic Forum Europe

Phone:

020 7456 1062

07960 000 926

07939 650 811

Online

www.islamicforumeurope.com / info@islamicforumeurope.com

Lote Tree Tarbiya is an education and training initiative of the Islamic Forum Europe, Young Muslim Organisation UK and Musalmaat UK

This course is sponsored by The Cordoba Foundation (TCF). TCF, founded in 2005, is an independent Public Research and Training unit, which promotes dialogue and the culture of peaceful and positive coexistence among civilisations, ideas and people. Engaging with decision-making circles, TCF is committed to better understanding and clearer comprehension of inter-communal and inter-religious issues in Britain, across Europe and beyond.
For further info contact 020 7960 6528 or visit www.thecordobafoundation.com